Peace Corps Ghana Symposium

Spending Your Days in Ghana: Responding to JFK’s Challenge

“How many of you who are going to be doctors are willing to spend your days in Ghana?” — John F. Kennedy, October 14, 1960 on the steps of the Michigan Union

Thursday, October 14, 2010

1:15 pm  The steps of the Michigan Union
Call to Order the Fontomfrom Talking Drums of Ghana

1:30-5:00 pm  Ghana Symposium
Pendleton Room, Michigan Union

Moderator  Timothy R.B. Johnson, MD,
Arthur F. Thurnau Professor
Bates Professor of Diseases of Women & Children
Chair, Obstetrics / Gynecology

1:30-2:00  Kathleen H. Sienko, PhD, Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering, College of Engineering

2:00-2:30  Rockefeller Oteng, MD, Acting Head, Department of Emergency Medicine, Komfo Anokye Teaching Hospital, Clinical Instructor, Department of Emergency Medicine

2:30-3:00  Lisa Newman, MD, Professor of Surgery, Medical School

3:00 - 3:30  Remarks by Joseph C. Kolars, MD, Senior Associate Dean for Medical Education and Global Initiatives

3:30-4:00  Break & Poster Displays
(Light Refreshments Provided)

4:00-4:30  Raymond Silverman, PhD, Director, Museum Studies Program; Professor, Afroamerican and African Studies; Professor, History of Art

4:30-5:00  Jody Lori, PhD, CNM, Clinical Assistant Professor, School of Nursing